So both the Dy Couns are agreable to his transfer. the file relating to the transfer of this person from Seringapatam to Kalasa is put up herewith. It is seen therefrom that the chief reason for his transfer from Seringapatam was that he was too quiet and weak to keep under control Parpathegar Varahaswamiengar and his party of temple servants. From the Head Sers's note on pp 10 of that file it is seen that the parpathegar died even before the Peshkar was ~~se~~ transferred from Seringapatam. So one of the the Sri Chamarajendra Sanskrit College at Bangalore, which for the present, is out of the question for several obvious reasons. The Perkar of the Chamundeshwari Temple (i/c the present incumbent Venkata-rama Sastry) is getting Rs 35 or 40, but the vacancies in the Sanskrit College carry less salaries.

The only action that seems to be called for on the Dy Com'r's letter is to record the same with the remark that the applications will be kept for consideration in due course. Is this to be done?
